

Sound of a Flower / Ma*JiD

GREEN
SOJA

Ma*JiD is cut from a different cloth. He has played with great musicians such as Wynton Marsalis, Mr. Cheeks (from The Lost Boyz), Antonio Hart (jazz saxophonist), Craig G (from The Juice Crew), John Blake Jr. (jazz violinist), Itzhak Perlman (classical musician/world known violinist), Keith David (actor/singer/voice actor), Isaac Stern (Grammy award violinist), and Regina Carter (jazz violinist).

A violinist, composer, and a bandleader, Ma*JiD graduated from the Juilliard School with a Bachelor of Music and a Master of Arts in Jazz Performance from Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College.

SOUND OF A FLOWER is an album that chronicles the development of jazz music from a juke joint, a highly technical musical view of a modern city, a gospel bound violin with orchestra in a great hall and a socially conscience street anthem with the hip-hop trap music swag to match.

“Ma*JiD has a unique blend of improvisation, groove and technical sophistication”

- Wynton Marsalis

“He really plays the language of Jazz”

- T.S. Monk

“The most killing Jazz violinist out now”

- Antonio Hart

“Taking Jazz violin in a new direction”

- John Blake Jr.
